

Just Playing

Author Unknown

When I'm building in the block room,
Please don't say I'm "Just playing."
For, you see, I'm learning as I play,
About balance, I may be an architect someday.

When I'm getting all dressed up,
Setting the table, caring for the babies,
Don't get the idea I'm "Just playing"
I may be a mother or a father someday.

When you see me up to my elbows in paint,
Or standing at an easel, or molding and shaping clay,
Please don't let me hear you say "He is just playing:"
For, you see, I'm learning as I play.
I just might be a teacher someday.

When you see me engrossed in a puzzle or some "playing" at my school,
Please don't feel the time is wasted in "play"
For, you see, I'm learning as I play.
I'm learning to solve problems and concentrate.
I may be in business someday.

When you see me cooking or tasting foods,
Please don't think that because I enjoy it, it is "just play"
I'm learning to follow directions and see the differences.
I may be a cook someday.

When you see me learning to skip, hop, run and move my body
Please don't say I'm just playing
For, you see, I'm learning as I play
I'm learning how my body works
I may be a doctor, nurse, or athlete someday

When you ask me what I have done at school,
I may say "just played"
Please don't misunderstand me
For you see I'm learning as I play

I'm learning to enjoy and be successful in my work
I'm preparing for tomorrow.
Today, I am a child and my work is PLAY
